

The holistic role of faith communities working to end sexual violence in the DRC

as part of the public Fringe events within the Global Summit to End Sexual Violence in Conflict

1000 – 1130, Thursday 12th June 2014
Discussion Room 4
ExCel London, Royal Victoria Dock, London, E16 1XL
Please arrives by 0950

Speakers:

Rev. Henri Isingoma, Anglican Archbishop of DR Congo

Dr. Jo Lusi, Founder of HEAL Africa, Goma

Thérèse Mema Mapenzi, Listening Rooms in Bukavu

Louise Bashige, Ushingi Programme Coordinator, Eastern DRC

Hosted by the 'We Will Speak out' Coalition and partner organisations. The 'We Will Speak out' Coalition brings faith communities together to end sexual violence. Please visit our website for more information: www.wewillsspeakout.org

Enquiries to: contact@wewillsspeakout.org

For directions to ExCel London, please visit this website.

This is a fringe event at the Global Summit to End Sexual Violence in Conflict. The event is open to the public and no registration to the main conference is necessary.

For more information on the summit and the fringe, please visit this website.